

Danielle McGuire

To whom it may concern: Danielle McGuire is an Incident Management Coordinator for Addus healthcare. Has received a bachelor's degree in business operations and project management. Improved multiple business operation by implementing new trainings and processes, to ensure all 22 branches in New Mexico meet federal regulations and standards. Has a passion for keeping local communities local, keeping in mind the consideration of the residence that reside their full time. Loves the outdoors and untamed wilderness that nature provides. Is looking forward to home steading in the beautiful community of Wild Hores, in the hopes of living as free as possible. Much appreciated, Danielle McGuire